Subject: Redraft of LRBa0211/1

Hi Mary--

Thanks for the Substitute Amendment to 2003 AB 109.

This email concerns the redraft of LRBa0211/1, regarding reciprocal hunting licenses for minors, a draft amendment to AB 109 that was not included in the Sub.

The amendment should be drafted as an amendment to the Sub, so I assume you do not need the stripes back on LRBa0211/1.

These are the 2 issues with the amendment.

On page 1, line 12, the amendment refers to a state that "has the authority" to issue licenses to minors in this state. The bill on page 5, line 6 requires that the other state "issues hunting licenses to minors." It appears that under the amendment, the other state could have authority to issue licenses but not do so, and still qualify for reciprocal treatment. The language in the bill would be preferable.

On page 2, line 3, the amendment requires that the other state must collect the same fee from resident and nonresident minors. The bill, on page 5, lines 7 to 9, requires that the other state collect the same fee from minors in this state as it does from its own minors. The amendment does not seem to express the idea of reciprocity---rather requiring that the other state not have higher fees for nonresident minors at all. The bill language is preferable.

As always, if you have questions about this, or if I am missing some nuances of the bill and amendment, please let me know.

Thanks.
